

PRESS RELEASE

CONTACT: Amy Biber
Marketing Manager
716.896.5200 x312
abiber@sciencebuff.org

MUSEUM'S ATTIC PROVIDES EXCLUSIVE, BEHIND-THE-SCENES EXPERIENCE AT THE BUFFALO MUSEUM OF SCIENCE Event expected to sell out again in 2009

BUFFALO, NY (September 8, 2009) -- The Buffalo Museum of Science invites people to party for a good cause at its 7th annual Museum's Attic, the only attic you'll enjoy spending time in!

WHERE: Buffalo Museum of Science
1020 Humboldt Parkway
Buffalo, NY 14211

WHEN: Saturday, November 7
6:30pm – 11:00pm

WHY: Fundraiser- All proceeds benefit the programs and services of the Buffalo Society of Natural Sciences.

TICKETS:

- Individual Museum's Attic tickets are $100 and can be purchased at www.sciencebuff.org.
- Patron tickets are $150 and include a listing in the event program if purchased before October 12.
- Tables of ten are available, along with sponsorship opportunities. Please contact Erin Collins at 716.896.5200 ext. 385 or ecollins@sciencebuff.org for more information.

The evening's activities take place throughout the Museum, where hundreds of guests can leisurely stroll through the galleries and hallways. Partygoers will enjoy food, drinks, live music and an exclusive chance to experience the Museum like never before.

Visitors will get a sneak peak at pieces from the private collection of Charles Rand Penney, one of the great American collectors of our time. These pieces have never been seen in a public museum before. Additionally, several behind-the-scenes tours led by Museum curators will take guests on excursions to view treasures of the Pan American Expo, learn about attraction and stealth in the bug world and much more. A competitive treasure hunt will also take place, complete with clues to find unique artifacts hidden all over the building. Silent and no-bid auctions will feature hundreds of items generously donated by Buffalo's best shops, attractions and collectors.

Good Vibrations, the Musuem's fall exhibit, will be open at this time. Whether it's man-made or heard in nature, sound is always around us. This exhibit investigates the physics and functions of sound, including pitch, volume, rhythm and more.

This event is for adults 21 and over.

ENTER TO WIN FOUR MUSEUM'S ATTIC TICKETS:

Enter to win four tickets to Museum's Attic in the Buffalo Museum of Science's atrium or visit www.sciencebuff.org to learn how to enter by email and view official contest rules.

Entrants must be 21 or older to win. No purchase is necessary.

-MORE-

-MUSEUM'S ATTIC pg 2-

The Buffalo Museum of Science is the non-profit educational institution dedicated to the study and interpretation of the natural and physical sciences. Its extensive collections of over 600,000 specimens and artifacts represent all facets of the natural world with an emphasis on Western New York as well as man-made objects spanning the globe. Based at 1020 Humboldt Parkway and anchoring Buffalo's East Side in Olmsted-designed Martin Luther King, Jr. Park since 1929, the Museum presents a wide variety of programs and services for children, teachers, families, adults, and community organizations throughout each year. General admission to the Museum is $7 adults; $6 seniors (age 62+); $5 students and children over 3; and free for members and children under 3. The Museum also operates Tiff Nature Preserve in South Buffalo, a 264-acre urban wetland preserve on reclaimed former industrial land and seasonally sponsors archaeological exploration at the Hiscock Site in nearby Genesee County, NY, one of North America's richest Ice Age sites.

For further information on the Museum and its upcoming activities, call 716-896-5200 or visit www.buffalomuseumofscience.org.

###